
Touchless Towels & Systems
Different restrooms have different needs. But they all need hygienic conditions. And we all need to be environmentally responsible. That’s why KIMBERLY-CLARK PROFESSIONAL® offers you a choice of hygienic touchless towel systems – from a company dedicated to reducing environmental impact worldwide.

Choose from a full range of towel solutions for your touchless environment, including green options.

We are committed to product innovation that uses less source material and leaves less waste.

To help safeguard our environment for future generations, we’re proud to join with the LEED® program in promoting buildings that are:

- Environmentally responsible
- Economically profitable
- Healthy and productive places to work
